Bormio & Malta—

Pac Rim's 2005 European trip will be to Bormio, Italy with an extension to Malta. The trip is mostly finalized and about half full.

We will be staying at the 4-star Hotel Rezia in Bormio at the edge of the old-town. The hotel provides van service to the nearby slopes of Bormio. Bormio is skiable at just over 3,000 m [almost 10,000 feet] from convenient lifts operating near our hotel.

The "Bagni Vecchi" [Old Baths], a main attraction, is one of the two thermal centers of Bormio. These therapeutic waters come from nine different springs with a temperature of 98.6° - 105.8° F.

In Malta, we will be staying in St. Julians, the entertainment district of Paceville in the north of Malta. The Hotel Vivaldi is just 2 blocks from the sea, 1.9 miles from Sliema, 4.3 miles from Valletta the capital of the island, and 6.2 miles from the airport.

To top it off, on our return we will overnight in Rome at the 4-star Hotel Capo D'Africa, just minutes from the Coliseum. We'll have most of a day to explore Rome. [See page 7]

Two Outstanding Ski Weeks—

Pac Rim will be joining LA Council February 5-12, 2005 for a trip to Steamboat and FWSA for a trip to Snowmass January 29 February 5, 2005. We are offering these trips separately or as one.

Lodging for both resorts is Ski-In / Ski-Out 2 bedroom/2 bath condos. The air & ground transfers for both Aspen and Steamboat range from $439 out of LAX to $499 out of San Diego. For both airports we will be flying into Eagle, bus to Aspen, bus to Steamboat, bus to Hayden, and fly home. Both flights are on United through Denver. [See page 8]

Wine Maker Dinner—

The next Wine Maker Dinner for The Jimmie Heuga Center is scheduled for Saturday, September 18, 2004. Price is be $60 per person. You can send your checks made out to The Heuga Center to me at 10818 Viacha Dr., San Diego, CA 92124. Checks will be sent to The Heuga Center as we receive them.

This year I will be joined by the head chef from the Harbor Island Hilton. Mary Trimmins and I have been busy planning some exotic meals to match some of the incredible wines that have been donated. This year's program will feature Charles Heidsieck Champagne, Kenwood Artist Series Cabernet, Novella Sangiovese, New Zealand venison and fresh ahi. You won't want to miss this one.

MEMBER PROFILE

Fay Mumbauer

At the May LAC meeting, President Jacquie Nemor, presented the Fay Mumbauer Award in recognition of the person who has contributed the most towards the goals and objectives of the Council. LAC introduced this achievement award in honor of Fay Mumbauer and named Fay as the first recipient.

Fay, also a member of Grindelwald and Long Beach, has been involved with ski clubs since 1965. She has served as President, and Vice President of Membership, Travel, Social, Ski Training and Historian.

She has been VP of Programs and Membership for LAC. And she continues to run the swap and coordinate the workers at the LA Ski Dazzle. Fay has also been VP of Travel for FWSA and she will be leading the Pac Rim Ski Week to Snowmass for FWSA Ski Week in 2005.

Fay was a fundraiser for the Holiday Hill's National Ski Patrol from 1975-79 while her husband and children served as patrollers. She was on the California Handicapped Skiers board for 12 years and for five years cooked the five days for up to 60 people for the annual Peak-to-Peak Bicycle Ride from Big Bear to Mammoth.

Fay was also a certified PSIA instructor at Holiday Hill where she had the pleasure of teaching friends, children and club members to ski. This award couldn't have been named for a more deserving person. ■

Everyone Welcome— Friends, Family, Beginner, Expert

FITNESS: GETTING IN SHAPE

It's time to crank up your fitness program. You can begin by adding a series of exercises to your regular program that will help prevent injury both on and off the slopes. Start with movements that will give your body the overall strength and power it needs to build a solid base during your weeks of training, such as the squat, deadlift, crunch and dumbbell bench press.

Try performing short intense intervals of 1 to 2 minutes that mimic your effort on the slopes. Figure out your maximum heart rate [approximately 220-age] and make sure you hit about 85-90% of it by the end of each interval. Start with 10 one-minute intervals with one-minute recovery periods between.

Recovery intervals should return your heart rate to around 50-60% of your max heart rate. Increase your time by 15 to 20 seconds for each interval every week until you work your way up to two minutes. If you can handle two-minute intervals add another interval. Do this twice per week for your best ski season ever. ■

INDUSTRY

Ski News

by Catherine Ohl

Mountain High Buys Ski Sunrise—

Mountain High Resort is purchasing neighboring Ski Sunrise from Howard More for about $375,000. The sale of the 97-acre ski resort, located about one mile from Mountain High's existing East and West areas, is set for mid-July.

With 850 vertical feet of terrain, the area currently includes 24 trails, one chair lift, two pomas, a paved parking lot for 480 cars, a restaurant facility, lodge, rental and retail shops.

In the short term, Sunrise will be used as a teaching and snow play [tubing and sledding] area. Mountain High's existing teaching terrain is often maxed out on weekends and there are no snow-play areas anywhere nearby.

Courtesy W. Feller

In the long run, Sunrise could become a more complete third area for Mountain High, offering skiing and riding on a larger scale. Any expansion will require major snowmaking installations as well as lift upgrades.

Sun Valley Flights—

Non-stop flights bring the magic of Sun Valley close to home. Beginning June 27, 2004 Horizon Air offers daily, non-stop flights to Sun Valley from Los Angeles. Now Southern Californians can reach Sun Valley in just two hours and ten minutes aboard a roomy 70-seat Q400 known for its luxurious leg room and ample storage space. Get your tickets for the new flights by calling 1-800-547-9308 or on the web at www.horizonair.com.

Tamarack Sells Out—

Tamarack resort had its second straight sell-out when it unloaded 64 real estate products, raising approximately $33.4 million for scheduled development. Home buyers from Idaho [58%], California [28%], Oregon [4.6%] and Georgia [3.1%] bought 10 cottages, 18 resort-built chalets and 36 estate home sites.

Right now, construction contractors are working on $52 million worth of projects including two Leitner-Poma detachable quads, a 60,000-square-foot member's lodge, 60 real estate sites and a 30,000-square-foot skier services building.

Copper Mountain Hosts USASA Championships—

Copper Mountain Resort has been awarded the bid to host the 2005 USA Snowboard Association [USASA] National Championship, April 2-9, 2005.

More than 1,200 snowboarders between the ages of 4 and 74 from across the country will convene at Copper to participate in a week of competitions and daily festivities. Event includes giant slalom, slalom, halfpipe, slopestyle and snowboard cross.

Vail Redevelopment—

Vail Resorts has officially kicked off $500 million in redevelopment projects in Vail Village and LionsHead with the groundbreaking of a new street-level park and an underground parking structure, located within walking distance of both the Vista Bahn Chairlift and Golden Peak base area.

Steamboat Suit Settled—

Triple Peaks and American Skiing Company [ASC] have jointly announced the settlement of the lawsuit regarding the termination of the proposed sale of the Steamboat Ski Resort to Triple Peaks in 2001. In return for a cash settlement, Triple Peaks has agreed to a full dismissal of all claims relating to the sale of the Steamboat Ski Resort.

District Judge Richard Doucette ruled in favor of American Skiing Company in December 2002. Triple Peaks appealed to the Colorado Court of Appeals, which reversed the District Court and found in favor of Triple Peaks in 2004. American Skiing Company then filed a petition for a writ of certiorari with the Colorado Supreme Court in May 2004, which has not yet been acted upon.

The settlement goes into effect immediately and American Skiing Company has withdrawn its writ of certiorari with the Colorado Supreme Court. Triple Peaks will now concentrate on Crested Butte development.

Courtesy Mammoth Mountain

Mammoth—

Mammoth Mountain Ski Area had the most successful season since 1985/86 during 2003/04, ending with a 4% growth over last season for skier visits.

With nearly 1.4 million skiers visiting the slopes this winter, Mammoth was California's most visited resort, and the third most visited resort in the country behind Vail and Breckenridge, CO.

Mammoth stayed open from November 6, 2003 to June 6, 2004, granting snow riders 214 days of winter operations. ■

FWSA CONVENTION

10-13 June 2004, Nugget, Sparks, NV

Special Guests—

We were honored to have some very special guests— Billy Kidd, 1964 Olympic Slalom Silver Medalist, Debbie Armstrong, 1984 Olympic GS Gold Medalist, and Dave & Roma McCoy, founders and owners of Mammoth Mountain. Dave was the keynote speaker and he treated us to a slide presentation of his early years in the Eastern Sierras.

Travel Expo—

Catherine Ohl, was responsible for devising and implementing the second annual Travel Expo, a valuable tool for industry and clubs. Industry gets a chance to talk to clubs one-on-one in ten-minute meetings. The clubs are exposed to some exciting & new opportunities to take back to their membership.

Silent Auction—

The Silent Auction is always a highlight. This year, probably due to the proximity of the slots and crap tables, the $105,000 in trips went for 43¢ on the dollar. There were some fantastic packages that were purchased at unbelievably low prices.

Dinner/Dance—

The food was probably the best convention meal I ever had, the band was fabulous and just about everyone danced until the wee hours. They had a great band.

2005 Convention—

The next FWSA convention will be June 9-12, 2005 at the Westin in Long Beach, CA. For more information, visit their web site at www.fwsa2005celebration.org.

KID'S KORNER

4 kids & grandkids

Car Travel Games—

Being in the car with your kids on a long trip can test everyone's nerves. Here are some ideas to keep you and the kids occupied and make the miles melt away.

Give Your Kids an Allowance for the Day—

Tell them that the money is for snacks, treats, souvenirs, etc. But when the money is gone, that is all there is. Help them learn to budget their money and make good choices.

Let Your Kids Have a Map—

Give your kids an opportunity to have their own copy of a map of where you are going. Show them how to read the map. Every time they ask "How much further?" have them take out their map and see for themselves.

A License Plate Game—

Spot a license plate and call out the letters on it. Then everyone tries to come up with a different phrase using the letters in the order they appear on the license plate as the first letter of each word. For instance OHL could be "old house leaning" or "over hill lady." When you can't think of any more, look for another license plate.

Tell Jokes—

Take turns telling silly jokes like knock-knock jokes or riddles. This is especially fun when the kids use their creativity to make up their own jokes. Even a two-year-old can tell jokes! They may not make sense, but they sure are hilarious.

Counting Cows—

Count the cows you see on your side of the car. If you pass a cemetery on your side of the car, you lose all your cows, but only if the opposing team calls "your cows are buried!" A white horse can count as a bonus. The team with the most cows wins.

Count Other Stuff—

Count blue vans, or count red cars, find 10 horses, count MacDonald signs, billboards, police cars, water towers.

Make a Trip Journal or Scrapbook—

Give everyone a big spiral bound sketch pad and a box of crayons or markers. Each day of the trip or for each event along the way, draw a picture of what you did that day, or draw a map of where you went, and write about it. You can also paste in souvenirs such as brochures, ticket stubs and other momentous. This is especially good for trips lasting more than a day.

Write or Collect Postcards—

Get postcards at your stops to document the trip, and to write back home to friends while you are gone. Bring stamps so you can drop them in the mail on the road so they will arrive at their destination before you return home.

Rest Stop Athletics—

Keep a ball, frisbee or jump rope in the back of your car, so when you stop at a rest area, everyone can run and be free and stretch their legs. ■

Scavenger Hunt—

Give each child a list of items to watch for while driving. The list can be made up ahead of time and adjusted for the scenery. Here's a sample list of items to hunt for!

- flashing red light
- bus
- dog
- food store
- railroad tracks
- cop
- school
- bike rider
- statue
- church
- playground
- flower garden
- pickup truck
- WalMart
- Taco Bell
- dog in a car ■

Hotel Rezia*

Why Bormio—

Bormio's origins are linked to its thermal waters, which have been renowned for their curative powers since ancient times. The nine springs are mentioned in Roman documents dating back to the first century AD. Today the tradition continues in modern thermal baths, most notable being the Bagni Vecchi baths.

The resort's long history has given it a rich collection of architectural treasures which make it a very interesting place to stay. Centered around the busy Via Roma, Bormio's old buildings are decorated with frescoes. It is here in the old town where you will get a taste of true Italian life, especially in the evenings. Here, a maze of small lanes zig and zag in all directions where you can shop 'til you drop.

Bormio's 5,879' vertical drop is one of the longest in Italy. Bormio at 10,000' is not a vast inter-linked skiing domain, however it's a great place for those who love to get to the top of the mountain and cruise descents of up to 9 miles down to the resort. The lower two thirds of the slopes are forested and serviced by snow making. Bormio, chosen to host the 2005 World Cup Championships, is part of the Alta Valtellina Lift Pass system with access to the slopes of Livigno, Santa Caterina and San Colombano.

Trip price is based on an exchange rate of 0.81. Also for the first time, we can offer air from San Diego and Las Vegas for an additional $68. Superior rooms at the Rezia is an additional $70. ■
